Pfc. R. H. Delear Wounded In Korea

Pfc. Richard H. Delear, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Delear of Moore Avenue, is reported to have been wounded in action in Korea. According to word received here by his family, Delear was blown from a foxhole while under heavy artillery fire at the front. Pfc. Delear, suffering from shock and possible spinal injury, has been taken to a hospital at Osaka, Japan.

Delear, who was serving as an infantryman with Company A of the Fifth Regimental Combat Team, had suffered injuries prior to going overseas. While on duty at Fort Lewis, Weshington, both joints of one ankle were blown away, and the wound had not completely healed before he went to Korea. The ankle wound has made it difficult for him to stand or walk properly.

Mrs. Delear said yesterday she had learned that the blast which injured him in Korea had also created complications in his limbs, for he now has difficulty in using his arms which have become stiff.

Delear, only child of the Campbell couple, attended San Jose High school and entered the Army at 18. He served for two and a half years in Germany with the occupation forces. His wife, Helen, is on the nursing staff at O'Connor Hospital.

Of the balance, $500 is for the library fund, $500 for the Visiting Nurse Association, $900 for the YMCA, and $100 for secretarial salary.

On May 1 of this year, the Campbell area had 514 boys and 164 adults enrolled in this program, representing 15.42 percent of the total enrollment of the Santa Clara County Boy Scout Council. This was an increase of 1.42 percent over the year 1949. Although the Boy Scout program is now serving 150 more boys this year than last, the council is asking the Community Service Fund to contribute only 10 percent of the council's operating budget.

The Girl Scout program, which will receive $1165 of the total fund, serves 191 scouts and leaders in this area, or seven percent of the total council membership. Since the fall of 1949, the Girl Scouts have increased their membership here by organization of two more troops in Moreland School and one at the Cambrian School. They plan to organize several troops at the Campbell School and hope for a Senior Girl Scout troop at the high school. The growth in this district for the year 1950-51 is expected to be about 20 percent.

Mrs. Fred Anibal of the Girl Scout office is the field director in charge of the Campbell area.

Firehouse Site Being Purchased On Central Avenue

Campbell Fire District commissioners are expecting to receive authorization to call for bids for purchase of the present fire house on Campbell Avenue, secretary Edward C. Merrill announced today. The bid forms are due the first part of next week.

At their meeting this week the comissioners approved plans to purchase the site for the new fire house on the west side of North Central Avenue, 170 feet north of Campbell Avenue. Ellen Wakeman, owner of the lot, has sold it to the district for $6000, and papers are now in escrow.

Merrill pointed out that purchase of the lot will not create a debt for the district since the entire sum will be paid from funds accumulated in the past two years through economical operation of the department. The money has been saved from the regular budget since the district has had no heavy expenses for the last couple of years.

Sale of the present Campbell Avenue firehouse and lot will provide funds toward erection of the new firehouse which will accomodate four department vehicles and a meeting hall for the Volunteer Fire Department members.

The new site has a 54-foot frontage on Central Avenue with a depth of 196 feet. In addition there is a 26x60 foot L-shaped piece.

PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX ROW

Few measures on the November 7, 1950, General Election ballot romise to be more hotly contested —and more confusing—than Propromise to be more hotly contested stitutional amendment to repeal personal property taxes.

Proponents already are brandishing the theme "tax relief" aloft as their principal campaign argument.

Opponents counter that it is far from tax relief, but that passage of Proposition No. 1 merely would result in a shifting of taxes from one group to another, from certain types of manufacturers and merchandisers to the average taxpayers.

INDIVIDUALS PAY LEAST

The personal property tax is one of the principal sources of revenue for counties, cities, and school districts. Contrary to what may be popular belief, that portion of the tax levied against household furnishings, etc., of individuals makes up a very minor portion of the revenue derived from the tax.

For all practical purposes, the personal property tax is borne by stores and warehouses with large stocks of merchandise and by heavy industries and the like with large machinery. In addition, automobile "in lieu" taxes are a personal property tax and banks pay some taxes on a personal property formula.

By repealing the personal property tax, an estimated 150 to 200 million dollars in revenue would be lost. Proposition No. 1 makes no provision for recouping the amount, proponents claiming that it is unnecessary.

TAX SHIFT

To the contrary, Fred Alexander, Executive Secretary of the County Supervisors Association, terms the measure "selfish and shortsighted." It would simply mean that the money would have to be raised through sales taxes or real estate taxes or through a combination of both methods, Alexander points out.

According to fiscal experts, if the loss in revenue was 150 million dollars and it was made up by the means of a sales tax, it would take roughly a 5½ cents per dollar tax to fill the bill in addition to the existing sales tax. If the burden should be shifted entirely to real estate taxes, it would mean an average increase in the tax rate throughout the state of $1.50 per $100 valuation — an exceedingly stiff boost.

Basically, the issue in connection with Proposition No. 1 is that of a tax shift, no matter what campaign arguments are trotted out in the next few weeks before election. The decision before the voters is whether to vote "yes" and pay new sales and real estate taxes or to vote "no" on Proposition No. 1 and continue personal property taxes.

Apartment House Zoning Studied By Planning Board

R. B. Thompson's petition for apartment house zoning on Central Avenue on the east and west sides of Central Avenue from the northerly line of Grant Street to a point 480 feet north was taken under study by the County Planning Comission Wednesday.

Commissioner Root was requested to investigate the matter which poses a problem in the master plan of highway development for the county. Considerable discussion was evoked by the matter since Central Avenue is eventually to become an extension of Monroe Avenue and a main thoroughfare.

When Monroe Avenue is extended to Central Avenue, it will be necessary to widen the latter street. Should it be necessary to condemn property on the street for this purpose, the cost to the taxpayers for a portion of developed apartment house land would constitute quite a sum.

Commissioners also questioned advisability of locating an apartment house zone on either side of a main thoroughfare.

DUPLEX DENIED

In other matters Stephen Dornall Road and Paseo Presada. on the east side of Monroe Street between Stevens Creek Road and Scott Street was denied. The board found such zoning to be unnecessary in the present single family residential zone.

Commissioners also approved a revised plan for Moreland Elementary School district's site at Buck-girls in this district. The sum represents 16 percent of the organization's $12,700 county budget, since 16 percent of the membership is in the Campbell area.

Campbell's quota is distributed over every item in the budget, again covering salaries, office expense, supplies and equipment such as those for the two scout groups.

Campbell representatives to the Community Council are Mrs. Richard Gordon and Mrs. James Corey. Forty-nine Campbell Camp Fire Girls attended camp last year. The adult leadership numbers 15 in this district, plus 27 sponsors.

In addition to these organizations, $100 has been budgeted from the Comunity Service Fund for the Scout Hall Association.

The annual drive for funds begins September 22 with a businessmen's breakfast, followed by canvass of the commercial district. The residential canvass will begin September 29.

Robert C. Kirkwood Named Chairman Of Republican Platform Committee

Assemblyman Robert C. Kirkwood, Saratoga, has been named chairman of the Platform and Principles Committee of the Republican State Central Committee, it was announced today by T. H. DeLap, State Central Committee Chairman.

In making his appointment, DeLap stated: "Assemblyman Kirkwood is in a particularly good position to understand and deal effectively with these problems because of the outstanding job recently done by him as chairman of the Platform Committee of the 1950 Republican State Convention under such difficult circumstances."

"With a certain amount of advance planning it is my thought that a very thorough, careful and complete job can be done by the Platform and Principles comimttee in the course of the next two years in analysing and expressing the position of the party on State and National issues.

Assemblyman Robert C. Kirkwood

"If done properly the job will be of immense value to the National Platform Comimttee in its work on National issues in 1952 and of even greater value in simplifying the work of the Platform Committee of the next California State Convention in setting forth the Republican Party's position on State issues,' 'said DeLap.

Kirkwood, who was re-elected to the office of Assemblyman from the 28th District at the June 6th Primary election, has been active in local as well as state Republican circles.

Fourth Commercial Zone Request Seen For Subdivision

Prospects of a fourth request for commercial zoning in the new subdivisions area on Saratoga Avenue were in the offing this week, as the County Planning Commission Wednesday received resolution of intention for commercial zoning from Walter W. and Hazel Williams. The couple seek to reclassify property on the west side of Quito Road, north of the railroad tracks, to C-2 zoning.

Related matters under advisement at the commission's meeting Wednesday were requests of Fred and Maude Smith for C-1-H commercial zoning on the west side of Paseo Presada in the Sorosis Farm Subdivision east of Saratoga Avenue, and Roy Kosich's C-1 commercial zone request for property on the west side of Saratoga Avenue in the same subdivision.

Second public hearing request of Philip S. Sanfilippo and Lionel J. Tilson for C-1 zone for the gore of El Quito Park tract, between Saratoga Avenue and Quito Road, was conducted by the board after which it, too, was taken under advisement.

The comission is seeking to establish a pattern for the development of the area which will be proper from a plannig standpoint. Study of the section will be continued, and the commission hopes to wind up the matter at its September 20 meeting.

Tax Payments For Third Quarter Due

The third quarter installment payments on estimated declarations of income tax liability for 1950 are due by September 15, Collector of Internal Revenue James G. Smyth of the First California District said today. The collector pointed out that tax statements should be returned with a check. Tax changes now pending in Congress will not effect the installment payment due by Sept. 15.

SERVICE NEWS

Campbell Boys Reported Wounded, Missing In Action

Mrs. D. E. Richey of 770 S. San Tomas avenue was informed this week by the War Department that her son, Pvt. Aggie L. Richey, 19, has been missing in action in Korea since July 27.

Pvt. Richey, who entered service in June, 1949, was only overseas in action for three days before going into battle with the 24th Infantry Division. He was graduated from Campbell Union High school.

Mrs. Richey lost another son, George, who died while fighting in Holland in 1944 during World War II. Also during the last war a third son, Doyle, lost a leg. Mrs. Richey has two other sons and three married daughters.

Also reported wounded in action on the Korean front was Pfc. Richard H. Delear, son of Lt. Col. Ernest Charles Delear (ret.) of Rt. 2, Box B, Campbell.

Donald Fagalde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Fagalde, is now serving with the U. S. Navy in Guam, where he is in charge of a pilot boat. He enlisted in the Navy before the war, shortly after graduating from high school.

Conrad Jaurriqui, nephew of Mrs. Mary Sandoval of 144 Railway Avenue, has re-enlisted in the regular Army for a term of three years. The local man, who served in the Army during World War II, has already reported at Fresno for duty. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Livor Jaurriqui of New Mexico. During his five years of war-time service, Sgt. Jaurriqui was a medical corpsman aboard a hospital ship in the South Pacific. After receiving his army discharge in 1945, he entered carpentry work here.

Gertrude M. Vandenberg, Seaman Apprentice, U.S. Navy, formerly of 1185 East Hamilton Ave., Campbell, has been assigned to the Navy's Dental Technician School at Great Lakes, Illinois. Miss Vandenberg enlisted in the Navy through the San Jose Recruiting Station on April 28, 1950. She has just completed recruit training at Great Lakes. Prior to her enlistment, she was employed as a private nurse in San Jose.

The San Jose Navy Recruiting Station announced today that effective imediately definite quota limitations have been set on Recruit enlistemnts. The heavy intake of recruits during the past two months have jammed the training centers to maximum capacity.

Hereafter, the recruiting station may enlist only as many men as the training centers can handle. Chief Jansen, in charge of the local office, states that the present quota is large enough so that he doesn't anticipate a waiting list for the next two weeks. After that time, men enlisting for the first time will, no doubt, be processed and placed on a waiting list and enlisted as the quota allows. All men who plan to enlist in the Navy are urged to apply at the recruiting Station in the Postoffice Building, San Jose and to get their names on the list as soon as possible.

Ted L. Marcuson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Marcuson of Rt. 1, Box 153-D, completed the Air Force basic airmen indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, on August 27. At present Ted is stationed at Ft. Francis E. Warren, Wyoming, where he is studying to be a teletype operator. Ted, who is 20, entered service July 5 of this year. He attended grammar schools in this area and then continued his schooling in San Jose.

Two Kids' Days, with free admission for all children under 16, will be held Tuesday and Friday during Fair week. The younger set will participate in peanut races, bubble gum blowing contests, and other activities planned especially for them.

Four days of quarter horse and harness racing, rodeos Friday and Saturday, junior and senior rodeos and horse shows, as well as evening and afternoon grandstand shows daily, with fireworks each night are a few of the outstanding events to be seen at the 1950 fair.

The West Coast Shows carnival, grandstand stage show featuring the Helen O'Neill chorus and six specialty acts from the Bert Levey Circuit, Art LaRue and Company —clowns returning from previous successful shows at the fairgrounds, Bette Ann, Happi ad Lindy in the children's Candyland Revue, all are additional entertainment features.

Elwood Hart and his orchestra will provide music for free dancing nightly under the stars at the Oriental dance pavilion, also the scene of folk dancing exhibitions by county groups.

A 35x80 foot portable stage, weighing 160,000 pounds, is the newest innovation in County Fair history. The stage is towed into position in front of the grandstand for performances and moved aside for track and rodeo activities.

Four radio stations will broadcast the festivities at the fair, including daily brunches honoring various civic and social groups throughout the county.

The bigger and better Santa Clara County Fair, one of the largest in the western states, also will have exhibits in agriculture, livestock, poultry, home economics, horticulture and floriculture, commercial displays and farm machinery demonstrations.

PIGSKIN POWOW . . . With more than 100 football hopefuls ready to turn out for the varsity and lightweight squads at Campbell High school, one would expect Head Coach Jim Muir to act accordingly and dream of great things. But nay, he has learned at an early age. Like practically all of his senior cohorts in the coaching trade, Muir, a neophyte in this racket, has acquired that pessimistic I-don't-cry-I-weep attitude concerning the prospects for the coming year.

Despite the fact that the school's largest turnout is expected for the first practice session Monday, Sept. 11, not one first-string man is back. Which makes for a certain degree of bona-fide gnashing of teeth.

Lost from last year's squad that tied for second place in the SCVAL are four all-loop players. Dudley Herschbach and Jess Holt, right and left end respectively, are no longer about. Harold Taylor, center, and left half Del Ambler are the other two absent ones.

In all, Campbell high won four and lost two in league play in '49.

The outlook at the local grid field is indeed bright for this season, not from the talent present, for it is too early to judge competently, but from personnel available on the coaching staff.

Last year only three coaches were on hand to condition and lead the varsity and lightweights (30's). This season, five coaches are present to take charge of three units.

For the first time in the school's athletic history, a junior varsity squad will be formed. Junior Morgan, varsity backfield coach, will be in charge of the JV's. The 30's are under the wing of Jules Langlow.

About 50 men are scheduled to compete for approximately 36 varsity spots, Muir said, with the remaining group forming the backbone of the junior squad along with a few of the lightweights.

Physical examinations are slated for tomorrow, Sept. 9, at the high school gym. They will be given between the hours of 9 a.m. and 10:30 p.m. CIF insurance must be paid at the same time.

Varsity practice sessions will be divided into two groups. One session will hold forth from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. For the candidates working or unable to attend for legitimate reasons, an evening practice will be held at 6:30 until 8 o'clock. Muir smilingly added that of course those players so wishing may participate in both sessions . . But for sure.

Muir expects this, his first year, to be a tough one. He said, with no first stringers back the team will lack actual playing experience and game know-how.

Before considering the players that are temporarily regarded as logical candidates for top positions, let us now gander over the schedule for this year.

The session starts Sept. 29 (tentative) against Lincoln at Santa Clara. Oct. 6 the Bucs will meet Mt. View at Mt. View in the league's opener. For the third consecutive week. CUHS will be away from home on the 13th when they tangle with Washington at Centerville. According to crystal balls and a deck of cards, the Centerville crew looms as the strongboys of the loop.

In its first home game of the season, the Bucs do battle against San Jose Tech. All home games will be played Friday afternoons. No lights, you see. Santa Clara visits the local gridiron on the following week, Oct. 27.

Bellarmine is host to the Mulrmen in a non-league tilt Nov. 4 in Santa Clara. Fremont, here, is on the agenda the next week, with Los Gatos winding up the eight-game season in the home arena.

In all, four games are set for home play with the other four, naturally, out of town. To a point, the Bucs have a favorable schedule, if one considers redeeming a previous loss of any importance. The last three games are with teams that defeated Campbell in 1949. The first five tussles should give the coaching staff ample time to form some sort of football aggregation that can give the last three teams four quarters of rough time.

OPEN TO ALL . . . Coach Muir stressed the fact that all positions are open on the varsity starting eleven. This season Muir attended spring practice and saw what some of the boys could do or should do. He also has some material on some of the second and third stringers that cavorted about last fall.

From this scant information the staff has compiled a tentative list of players that are counted upon to form the nucleus of this year's eleven.

Muir singled out two quarterbacks that should carry the offensive load satisfactorily enough. They are Dave Baxter and Johnny Perata. Both lads saw some duty on last year's squad.

Expected to press the two is Carlo Boncore, up from the lightweights. Last season, the 150-lb. junior showed extreme promise and plenty of natural ability. But as things stand at the moment, Baxter and Perata have an advantage due to their needed experience.

The fact that the Bucs probably will have to rely on speed and a capable passing attack is seen when one considers the size and weight of the fullbacks.

The two lads who undoubtedly will hold down the spot are Charlie McBain, 5' 9" and weighing 155 lbs., and Harley Thompson, a 5' 8" 155-lb. senior. Of all the backs scheduled to run on the eleven, Thompson appears to be the shiftiest and most elusive.

Under the power T that Muir will utilize, the right half is equivalent to the fullback in the single wing system. At this position Muir has some of his bigger boys. Leading right half at this writing is Frank Calabray, a 180-lb. senior tipping the height chart at 5'11".

Closely following is Bill Anderson, 10 pounds lighter. Both are adequate punters.

At left half Bob Saia and Tom Rhodes are the best of the rest, so far. Saia is 5' 9" and weighs 155 and Anderson is an inch taller and about five pounds lighter.

Even at the high school level, the present global uneasiness is felt in no uncertain terms. Charley Gibons, set for a first-string center post, is in the national guard as are several other football candidates . . . 'Nuff said.

Alien Travelers Warned To Apply For Reentry Permit

Mr. Bruce G. Barber, District Director of Immigration and Naturalization for the San Francisco District, today warned all aliens who intend to make a trip beyond Canada or Mexico that they must apply for a re-entry permit at least 30 days before their proposed departure date. The increasing tenseness in the international situation seems to be causing many persons to make trips abroad now which might otherwise have been made later.

Because of necessary investigation, the issuance of re-entry permits permitting aliens to visit foreign countries and return has been slowed down, and it is very important that applications be made early in order to avoid disappointments and possible cancellation of reservations because permits are not ready.

"We are doing everything in our power to give the public the best possible service," said Mr. Barber, "but it is impossible to secure files, verifications of entry, and clearances in a few days. We do not want to delay anyone in making a trip, but unless applications are made 30 days before departure date, many persons will be disappointed."

Slightly over 300 re-entry permits were issued at San Francisco during July and over 340 were issued in August.

Alients visiting in Central and South American countries have been the slowest in filing their applications—they do not seem to realize that the regulations requiring application 30 days in advance also apply to them. It does not make any difference where the alien is going—it requires the same length of time to issue the permit.

Mr. Barber further stated that aliens who have been admitted to the United States for permanent residence and who desire to travel to Mexico or Canada should apply for a border crossing card at least 30 days prior to the proposed departure date. No fee is charged, while a $3 postal money order payable to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization is required at time of filing for a re-entry permit. One passport size photograph of the applicant is required prior to issuance of the border crossing card and two of the same for a re-entry permit.

Mr. Barber stated, "A border crossing card is valid for return to the United States within a period of six months from time of issuance. It may be renewed by any office of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service within the United States for periods of six months up to a maximum validity date of five years from date of issuance."

Welfare Institute To Circulate New McClain Proposal

Petitions to the State Legislature for enactment of a new pension proposal by George McLain will be put into circulation at a mass meeting of the California Institute of Social Welfare to be held on Wednesday, Sept. 13, at 1 p.m. in the IOOF Hall.

Point-by-point provisions of the initiative measure for the betterment of California's old age pension law will be detailed at the meeting.

The petition, requiring 127,920 signatures, will be circulated at a minimum cost by members of the organization. It would compel the Legislature to act upon the demands of the petitioners. In the event the Legislature refuses, the issue would be submitted to a vote of the people.

Meanwhile, McLain is blanketing the state with a five-day-a-week broadcast explaining his new pension measure over a statewide network of 24 radio stations.

POPULAR RECORDS — Every war brings in its wake a great number of patriotic pieces and the Korean situation is no exception. Ralph Flanagan throws everything but the kitchen sink into his latest effort of contemporary patriotism—THE RED WE WANT IS THE RED WE'VE GOT IN THE OLD RED WHITE & BLUE (Victor 20-3904). This clever bit of flag waving will probably land on every juke box in the country before too long.

The beautiful ballad CAN ANYONE EXPLAIN is sung with deep feeling and warmth by Dinah Shore (Columbia 38927). I haven't heard Dinah sing so well since she was on the Chamber Music of Lower Basin Street radio program many years ago.

Another ballad that appears destined to go places is JUST SAY I LOVE HER. Vic Damone throws in a dash of Italian lyric to flavor his waxing of this song and the all-over effect is charming.

A bit of sage advice on wax is offered by the Sons of the Pioneers on their latest orecording—OLD MAN ATOM (Victor 21-0368). This one is also in the war vein and tells what may be in store of the world when Old Man Atom is turned loose.

TONY MARTIN'S DREAM GIRLS is a stunning, romantic collection of girl tunes (Victor P-287). Tony has never been in better voice and while most of the tunes fairly drip with classy, scmaltzy showmanship, you'll look a long time before you find a better vocal interpretation. Tony's quick changes from full voice to whispering intimacy plus the sympathetic orchestral background of Henri Rene add up to a package you definitely won't want to miss. Tunes included are Ramona, Dolores, Sweet Sue, Laura, Rosalie and Diane.

Tony Martin also has a new single that we'll all be hearing a lot of in the near future — MUSIC MAESTRO, PLEASE (Victor 20-3883). Tony's velvety tones and split-second phrasing bring out every exciting nuance of this great ballad. Frankie Laine also has an excellent version of this tune (Mercury 5458). Frankie sings in an intimate manner but still with the strong rhythmic pulse that has been his trademark in popular songs. Pick your boy for this tune—it's Tony for me.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS: ROY ROGERS' RODEO is full of exciting bronk-riding contests, rodeo stunts and a hold-up. Roy and his friends of course save the day ably assisted by swell sound effects, lively band music and some flavorful cowboy songs. There is also a 24-page picture-story book in full color that goes with the records. The small cowboys and cowgirls in your family will wear the records while listening to this exciting adventure story.

CLASSICAL RECORDS: The popularity of Haydn's music has brought a real deluge recently after many years when it was almost impossible to by anything new by Papa Haydn. Two of Haydn's melodious and easily accessible symphonies are coupled together on one Long-Playing disc by Mercury (MG-10050). Hans Rosbaud conducts the Bavarian Radio Orchestra in a performance that sparkles with liveliness and is excellently reproduced. Symphonies are Nos. 82 ("Bear") and 104 ("London"). The "London" of course is the more profound and also the more popular of the two symphonies. If you are not familiar with the "Bear" you will find in it the same symmetrical design, nicely balanced phrases, the clear tonalities, and sunshine of the major mode that is so characteristic of Haydn's music.

The perennial favorite, Gershwin's RHAPSODY IN BLUE, has appeared in new dress by Jose and Amparo Iturbi, duo-pianists with Jose Iturbi doubling as conoductor for the RCA Victor Symphony Orchestra. Since it was written 26 years ago, the Rhapsody in Blue has stayed without interruption on the symphonic repertoire. The rhapsody has been transcribed for various categories but this is the first two piano and orchestral version. Jose and Amparo Iturbi play brilliantly, the pianos fairly sparkle and the orchestra is full and rich.

Young models for the Cupertino Parent-Teacher Association's Fall Fashion Fiesta September 13, learn a few fashion facts from Mrs. Elbert Foster, member of the PTA's committee on models for the show. The event will be staged at Rolling Hills Guest Ranch and proceeds will be used for recreation and social welfare work for children of the Cupertino-Monte Vista area. Shown above are, left to right, Susan King, Carolyn Nose, Diana Paviso, Ralph Palmer, Mrs. Foster and Bobby Kelly. D. J. Sedgwick photo

Cupertino Union PTA Fall Fashion Fiesta Promises Dramatc Opener To Season

The opening of school always seems to arrive so suddenly that it is wonderful to have a fashion preview just in time to outfit Jack and Jill and mother and teacher, too. The Cupertino Union Parent-Teacher Association, which is always thinking ahead to the needs of the community, foresaw just such a situation and is presenting its annual Fall Fashion Fiesta on Wednesday, September 13, at lovely Rolling Hills Guest Ranch.

Models, who have been chosen from among the mothers, teachers and children of the school, will include: Mrs. George W. Ames Sr., modeling styles for the modern grandmother; Mrs. Thomas Brady, Mrs. C. F. McCarthy, Mrs. Paul Mariani Jr., Mrs. Don Hartman and Diane wearing mother and daughter styles; Miss Helen Mardesich and Miss Jean McCoy in teen-age fashions.

Mrs. Lydia Gillespie will represent the well dressed teacher. Alexia and Lynn Field, Carolyn and Leslie Nose, Terry Maas, Bobby Kelly, Linda Rae Erickson, Susan King, Diana Paviso, Ralph Palmer, Richard Guidotti and Bob Montonye will all share the glory in the elementary age group.

Refreshments, favors and other interesting events are planned to make this Fashion Fiesta a truly gala affair for those in attendance.

The lovely fall woolens, the sparkling cottons and dress goods in a variety of fabrics to be shown will be provided from the new stocks of Ange's Department Store and Will's Casuals of Cupertino and the Monte Vista Dry Goods.

Models for the affair will have extra-special coiffures created by the Cupertino Beauty Shoppe and Monte Vista Beauty Salon. Frank of The Barber Shop will see to it that the young gentlemen are as smartly groomed as their sisters.

Not only does this Fall Fashion Fiesta promise a most enjoyable afternoon, but the proceeds will be used by the PTA to carry forward an ambitious program for the coming year, including increased recreational and social welfare programs, continuance of the popular and enthusiastically endorsed well baby clinic, Christmas and graduation treats and sponsorship of various scouting activities.

Mrs. Michael McLaughlin, general chairman of the fiesta, reports that there have been a number of requests for tickets from neighboring towns, including San Jose, Saratoga and Sunnyvale. Everyone is urged to join in the effort and make this first event of the school year a real success.

CALIFORNIA SPEAKS

Statements By Interesting Californians

HENRY ARMSTRONG, L.A., ex-boxing champion turned evangelist—"When the powers of God strike you, sometimes it turns out stranger than fiction."

BOB HAWK, Hollywood radio star—"A bachelor is a man who failed to embrace his opportunities."

LT. GOV. GOODWIN KNIGHT—"Should traitors and saboteurs seek to destroy our churches, our schools and industries by force and violence, the war veterans of America would rise in a great wave and destroy them."

DAVE BECK, AFL union leader, addressing the Comomnwealth Club in S.F.—"I admit there is still Communism in the labor movement, but all the crackpots are not in labor; a lot of them are in the universities."

Blood-Typing Booth To Be Sponsored By Medical Society

With the clear-eyed realization that disaster, even in the form of bombing, can strike right here at home, the Santa Clara County Medical Society has chosen as the theme for its County Fair exhibit, "If disaster strikes—be prepared. Know your blood type!" And to every visitor attending the fair, the local Medical Society will offer, without any charge, a blood-typing service. Knowing what your own blood type is, may save your life in case of an accident or other emergency requiring blood transfusion. The Medical Society fair booth will be manned by physicians and nurses, and will have refrigeration and sterile equipment on hand to expedite the simple process of blood typing on the spot.

As a dramatic and colorful focal point for its booth, the Medical Society has been loaned by Collier's magazine, the original painting by Chesley Bonestell which first appeared as the front cover on the August 5 issue of Collier's. Depicting in graphic detail the effect of an A-bomb dropped on New York City, the picture, nearly 2 by 3 feet, is considerably more colorful and dramatic than the magazine reproduction. Because of the value of the original painting, it came heavily insured from the magazine, and the local Medical Society has taken out an additional policy to cover its responsibility during the time the picture is in its possession. It is effectively framed in bleached wood, and will be the compelling back-drop of the booth.

Other attention-getters will be a panel of actual photographs of children from one war-torn European city. Captions under each thought-inspiring photograph are taken from Kipling's "Children's Song." These photographs also came through the courtesy of Coronet. With the thought that these could be photographs of our American children, if the horror of war should reach these shores, the society is impressing upon the public the need for intelligent, advance preparation for emergency.
